Obituary
Gretchen went home to be with her Lord and Savior, September 13, 2012, at a Birmingham hospital. She was born June 3, 1938, in Greenbow, daughter of Carl and Jonell Brettersson.
Gretchen enjoyed spending time with family, going for walks, playing cards, hanging out at Janie's Country Bar, and attending special family reunions. She resided in Haynesville before moving to Birmingham in 1973. She was a member of Birmingham Baptist Church, attended Bluewater Federated Church, and belonged to Bluewater Women's Wine Club. She served as a ballot clerk and worked various jobs as well as assisting her husband in several business ventures.
She is survived by three daughters, Regina Reynolds, Jane Fields and husband, Aurelius, of Bradenton, and Skylar White and husband, Walter, of Juarez; four grandchildren, Topanga Lawrence and husband, Corey, Theodore Nelson and wife, Lynn, Parker Benson and wife, Anita, and Grace Brettersson and husband, Brett; several great-grandchildren; three sisters, Edith Bartlett, Nina Barker and Tabby Aldrich; two brothers, William "Rocky" Brettersson and David Matthew Brettersson; special sister-in-law, Raquel Reynolds; and many nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her husband, Carson Reynolds.
